ORDER

New Delhi, the 25th November 1954

S.R.O. 3488.—Whereas the Central Government is of opinion that an industrial dispute exists between the employers in relation to the United Bank of India Limited and their workmen in respect of the matters specified in the Schedule hereto annexed;

And whereas the Central Government considers it desirable to refer the said dispute for adjudication;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Central Government hereby refers the said dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal constituted by the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. LR-100(53)/54 I, dated the 25th November 1954.

SCHEDULE

1. Whether there is any surplus among the workmen now employed by the Bank, having regard to the volume of its business, number of its branches, number of accounts on its books and other relevant factors.

2. If the Bank is now employing workmen in excess of its requirements, the extent of retrenchment the Bank may effect, in order to bring the strength of its staff to normal and the principles and methods to be followed in regard to retrenchment of such workmen in addition to those contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.
3. To what extent there is need for any other reorganisation of the establishment of the Bank and how and in what manner such reorganisation may be effected.
